11.1 Modifications. NEC may update, amend, modify or supplement the terms and conditions of this Agreement on a going forward basis from time to time upon notice to Revenue Share Partner. Except as otherwise specified by NEC, all such changes are effective upon NEC's giving of notice of the changed Agreement. Revenue Share Partner can review the most current version of this Agreement at <https://partner.univerge.blue/legal/>. In connection with any such update, amendment, modification or supplement to this Agreement, NEC may (in its sole discretion) require you to provide consent by accepting the changed Agreement. Disputes arising under the Agreement will be resolved in accordance with the Agreement in effect at the time the dispute arose.

11.2 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Forum; Attorneys' Fees. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario without regard to its conflicts of laws or its principles. Any claim or suit arising out of or relating to this Agreement may only be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction located in Ontario. If NEC prevails in an action to enforce this Agreement, including, without limitation, any action by NEC for the recovery of fees due hereunder, Revenue Share Partner will pay NEC's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs associated with such action. Revenue Share Partner agrees to waive the right to trial by jury with respect to any proceeding related to or arising out of this Agreement.

11.3 Written Communications and Notice. 11.4 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, then the remaining provisions of this Agreement will nevertheless be given full force and effect and be interpreted as broadly as possible to give full effect to the intentions of the Parties in entering into this Agreement.

11.5 Waiver. No waiver by NEC of any breach by Revenue Share Partner of any of the provisions of this Agreement will be deemed a waiver of any preceding or succeeding breach of this Agreement. No such waiver will be effective unless it is in writing signed by the parties hereto, and then only to the extent expressly set forth in such writing.

11.6 Assignment. Revenue Share Partner may not assign this Agreement or otherwise transfer any of its rights and obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of NEC. NEC may assign this Agreement or transfer any of its rights and obligations under this Agreement, without consent of Revenue Share Partner. Any attempted assignment in violation of this Section 11.6 will be void and of no force and effect. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement will inure to the benefit of and will be binding upon the permitted successors and assigns of the parties.

11.7 Force Majeure. NEC will not be in default or liable for any loss or damage resulting from delays in performance or from failure to perform or comply with the terms of the Agreement due to any causes beyond its reasonable control, which causes include but are not limited to Acts of God or the public enemy; riots and insurrections; war; terrorism; fire; strikes and other labor difficulties (whether or not the party is in a position to concede to such demands); pandemics epidemics; embargoes; judicial action; lack of or inability to obtain export permits or approvals, necessary labor, materials, energy, components or machinery; or acts of civil or military authorities.

Continued performance of the activities contemplated by this Agreement constitutes continued acceptance of this Agreement, including any and all modified terms. These terms will bind and benefit the successors and heirs of the parties. Revenue Share Partner understands and agrees that (i) the NEC Parties are third party beneficiaries of this Agreement, and (ii) in the event of any breach of this Agreement, such NEC Parties shall have all rights and remedies available to them as if they were parties to this Agreement, including claiming the benefit of Section 7 of this Agreement.

“Non-Recurring Fee” means the gross fees that NEC, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and regular, established NEC practices, recognizes under a Triggering Contract on a non-recurring basis for the applicable NEC Products, less NEC’s costs for service fees, sales tax, and gross receipts tax amounts imposed by any competent taxing authority. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) non-recurring fees paid to NEC and (ii) any local, state, provincial or federal taxes, regulatory recovery fees, regulatory compliance fees, administrative charges or surcharges, 911 fees (such as emergency service surcharges), or any other excise tax or fees paid to NEC, are all expressly excluded from the calculation of the Non-Recurring Fee.

“Initial Period” means the first (1) complete calendar month completed of the term of the applicable Triggering Contract.

2. REVENUE SHARE PARTNER PAYMENTS FOR SALES OF NEC PRODUCTS

(a) Recurring Payments

If an End User enters into a Triggering Contract for NEC Products during the term of this Agreement, via the NEC quoting and ordering web portal, the Triggering Contract, then NEC will pay Revenue Share Partner a Revenue Share Partner Payment, for each calendar month, including the month in which the Triggering Contract is signed, where such Triggering Contract remains an active NEC account as of the end of the last day of that particular calendar month, equal to the difference between (a) the Aggregate Net Monthly Recurring Fee for the applicable NEC Products purchased under such Triggering Contract, less (b) the Revenue Share Partner’s buy price from NEC for the applicable NEC Products, as determined in accordance with the terms of NEC’s Revenue Share Partner program in effect at such time, as they may be modified or amended from time to time.

(b) Non-Recurring Payments

If an End User enters into a Triggering Contract for NEC Products during the term of this Agreement, via the NEC quoting and ordering web portal, the Triggering Contract, then NEC will pay Revenue Share Partner a Revenue Share Partner Payment for the applicable NEC Products (e.g.: hardware such as phones, routers, ethernet switches) purchased under such Triggering Contract, equal to the difference between (a) the Fee for the applicable NEC Products purchased under such Triggering Contract, less (b) the Revenue Share Partner's buy price from NEC for the applicable NEC Products, as determined in accordance with the terms of NEC's Revenue Share Partner program in effect at such time, as they may be modified or amended from time to time.

3. TERMS AND TIMING OF REVENUE SHARE PARTNER PAYMENTS

For the avoidance of doubt, NEC will not be obligated to pay any Revenue Share Partner Payments with respect to a Triggering Contract that is terminated prior to the end of the respective Initial Period.

NEC will pay Revenue Share Partner Payments that are due, within thirty (30) days after the initial period and Revenue Share Partner submits commission invoice to NEC, and within thirty (30) days after each subsequent month based upon receipt of invoice by NEC. NEC will be obligated to pay Revenue Share Partner Payments from recurring payments under a Triggering Contract following the termination of this Agreement, at the commission rate in place as of the date of such termination, for the period of time that the applicable End User (i) remains a customer in good standing with NEC and (ii) continues to purchase NEC Products originally purchased under an accepted Triggering Contract, except in the event of termination of this Agreement for Material Gross Breach, in which case NEC's obligation to continue making Revenue Share Partner Payments to Revenue Share Partner shall immediately terminate on the date of such breach. NEC's obligation to pay the Revenue Share Partner Payments to Revenue Share Partner with respect to a Triggering Contract is contingent upon NEC receiving the applicable monthly recurring fee from the End User.

4. FEES FOR NON-GENERALLY AVAILABLE PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

For those NEC products and services which cannot be licensed directly through NEC's website but which require the intercession of an NEC sales representative, NEC will offer customized pricing and fee arrangements on a case by case basis, at its sole discretion.
